Rating: - LOVE IT!

I bought this wagon after reviewing several different ones. I needed one that was easy to get in and out of my car and this was it. It folds with ease and is very spacious when in use. I bought it for my 15 month old, there is space for her (and my 11 yr old!) plus the end has a nice spot for storage and there are drink holders in the front. I love the canopy and the first day I took it out all the kids at the park ran over to check it out, I also had a few parents ask me where I got it. I would ... Read More

Rating: - A nice daycare ride

So far so good, the wagon is great. I can fit four daycare kids in it and I can still pull it up a hill, I couldn't believe it was sturdy enough to hold them, but it is. It's comfortable for the kids and the canopy is great to protect them from the sun. The only downfall is the steering is a little hard when back up or getting into a confined space. It is a great product, especially if you are looking for space for more than one or two kids.

Rating: - Love this wagon

I ordered this wagon because I saw someone else using a similar one in the park. It is from the other company. But after I did some search I decided to buy this one. It is a very convenient wagon and very well made, and surprisingly very sturdy. It folds up very flat and easy to fit into my van. I used to have a double jogger and it was getting too heavy for me to push with my twins of over 70 lbs. It is very very easy to turn and very spacious. The canopy is big and easy to put on or off, very clever ... Read More
